ARCHITECTURAL PLANS & 3D DRAWINGS

*Please note that the furniture, extra fittings, accessories, various types of lighting accessories, and electrical appliances are available at an additional cost. Additionally, some colors or types of materials may vary depending on availability. The 3D renderings are provided to give a closer representation of how the apartments will look.
